6 REMARKABLE HOT AIR BALLOON DESTINATIONS IN INDIA

 Author name | November 28, 2025

Riding in a hot air balloon in India has always been a dream and adventure for tourists all over the world. Journeys across seas, oceans, and mainlands to new and different worlds, cultures, and people, whether expressed in films or stories, have always caught imagination and sparked inspiration. The allure of seeing beautiful scenery, places, and land from high above and in the open air, swimming in a basket and being carried across the atmosphere like an alien ship, is enormous. Hot air balloon rides seem to have always been popular as a tourism sport in western countries where it is rehearsed and widely promoted.

Here is a list of the top 6 hot air ballooning in India –

1. Himachal Pradesh's Manali

Fly over the Himalayas for a spectacular view of this magical city. Hot air ballooning is a famous exotic adventure sport among visitors in Manali. The balloon basket can have up to 5 people and is held jointly by a rope. The time of the ballooning in the air is completely variable to wind flow and air pressure. The ride cost is variable to event.

2. West Bengal's Darjeeling

Darjeeling's hot air balloon ride brings you 1500 feet up in the sky. The balloon ride, one of Darjeeling's many experienced sports activities, takes place between October and May between 4 pm and 6 pm and needs to be somewhere between 7-15 people at a time depending on their body weights.

3. Maharashtra's Kamshet

While appreciating the sunrise or sunset, take a compelling ride through lush greenery, waterfalls, forts, lakes, and an unfamiliar view of the Sahayadri ranges. It is 100 kilometres from Mumbai and is found in Kamshet near Lonavla. The ride can seat up to 9 people and costs approximately Rs 8,400 per person. The 60-minute hot air balloon ride in Maharashtra reaches a maximum altitude of 4000 feet.

4. Madhya Pradesh's Bhopal and Bandhavgarh Tiger Reserves

The hot air balloon ride takes place at the Jeet Stadium in Bhopal, the city of lakes. It is a 45 minutes to one hour experience flight. There is also a choice-up and drop-off service. You can appreciate the breathtaking view of Bhopal's lakes as well as the stunning scenery.

The well-known Bandhavgarh Tiger Reserve also presented the country's first hot air balloon wildlife safari. During your thrilling and fun ride, you might see tigers, leopards, Indian sloth bears, and other nature at the reserve. The ride costs Rs 14,500 per person, which has pick-up and drop-off, refreshments, and a one-hour ride.

5. Rajasthan's Pushkar and Jaipur

Pushkar is famous for its colourful annual Pushkar fair, and a hot air balloon ride in Pushkar provides a stunning view of the entire celebration. A delightful ride over the fairgrounds with views of the lakes, cattle, and dunes.

Fly over beautiful palaces, gaons, and memorials in Jaipur. The scenic view of the Pink City will surprise you. The best time to call is between September and June, when it gets a height of 4000 feet. Hot air balloon ride in Pushkar costs about 14,500 rupees per individual and lasts 60 minutes.

6. Hot air balloon ride in Chandor, South Goa.

Goa, India's beach capital, is an all-time choice destination for both households and international visitors, thanks to its exciting culture and lively beaches. Tourists visit Goa to appreciate the beautiful beaches, nightlife, water sports, and natural loveliness.
